

Nehemiah 03 - Rebuilding the Wall; Each Family Builds a Section of the Wall

I. Rebuilding of the wall (Neh 1:1—7:73)

(2) Nehemiah rebuilds the wall despite much opposition (Neh 3:1—6:19)

(A) Each family builds a section of the wall (3:1-32)

- (a) Sheep gate (3:1-2)
- (b) Fish gate (3:3-5)
- (c) Old gate (3:6-12)
- (d) Valley gate (3:13)
- (e) Refuse gate (3:14)
- (f) Fountain gate (3:15-25)
- (g) Water gate (3:26-27)
- (h) Horse gate (3:28)
- (i) East gate (3:29-30)
- (j) Inspection gate (3:31-32)

A task as enormous as rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, especially under adverse conditions, called for unusual organizational effort. The uniqueness of Nehemiah's plan is evident in this chapter. Several aspects of his delegation of the work are evident.

He assigned everyone a specific place to work. This coordination stands out in the phrases "next to him," "next to them," "next to that," "the next section," "beside him," and "beyond them," which occur 28x in this chapter. Assignments were made near people's houses (v21,23-24,26,28-30).

Commuters also had a part. Men whose homes were outside of Jerusalem—in Jericho (v2), Tekoa (v5,27), Gibeon (v7), and Mizpah (v7)—were assigned to sections of the wall where there were few homes. Assignments were also made by vocation. For example, the high priest and his fellow priests were assigned to rebuild the Sheep Gate (v1). This was of particular interest to them, because animals were brought through that gate to the temple for sacrifice. Other priests are mentioned in v22,28. Other workers whose vocations are listed include goldsmiths (v8,31-32), perfume-makers (v8), district and half-district rulers (v9-12,14-19), Levites (v17), and merchants (v31-32). Even one man's daughters were involved (v12).

Nehemiah 3

(2) Nehemiah rebuilds the wall despite much opposition (Neh 3:1—6:19)

(A) Each family builds a section of the wall (3:1-32)

(a) Sheep gate (3:1-2)

1 Then Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and installed its doors. They consecrated the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

1 Then Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They consecrated the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

1 So Eliashib the high priest came forward, along with his fellow priests, and reconstructed the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and installed its doors. They also consecrated the wall as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

- Nehemiah's account of the reconstruction begins with the Sheep Gate at the northeast of the wall, and proceeds counterclockwise around the city

- "...Eliashib the high priest" - grandson of Jeshua (12:10), the high priest in Zerubbabel's day (Ezra 3:2)

— The fact that the high priest, along with his fellow priests, participated in the reconstruction demonstrates a willingness to lead by example and that spiritual leadership also includes practical service.

— Eliashib and other priests (Cf. 3:22) repaired and dedicated the Sheep Gate, then repaired the walls to the Tower of the Meah ("Hundred") and the Tower of Hananel (also mentioned in 12:39; Jer 31:38; Zech 14:10). These towers were between the Sheep Gate and the Fish Gate.

- "...arose" - "rose up" [KJV], an interesting verb to describe Eliashib's call to service and willingness to serve. Eliashib and his fellow priests acted like a godly leader should: he was out in front of the work, leading by example. He didn't view himself as "too spiritual" for the hard work of rebuilding the walls.

— Eliashib is mentioned first, and for good reason; the rest of the chapter is filled with the names of more than 50 others who followed his example. He is a beautiful picture of our High Priest, who was and is the ultimate servant.

- "...Sheep Gate" - the fact that the priests, responsible for temple services, worked on the Sheep Gate (where sheep intended for temple sacrifice entered the city) was not a fluke.

- "...consecrated" - to consecrate something is to recognize it as special, as uniquely set apart for God's glory and service. Eliashib knew that these city gates and the wall were being reconstructed because God wanted them reconstructed, and they knew that He wanted everything set apart exclusively for Him.

2 And next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

2 Next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

2 Men from Jericho did repairs next to him, and Imri's son Zaccur did repairs next to them.

2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

- Every man's work was important, and although the men of Jericho and Zaccur did not reconstruct a gate, they did the important job of building the wall for the protection and security of Jerusalem.

- Jericho was located about 17 miles northeast of Jerusalem, so these men left their own district to join in the reconstruction. This shows the cooperative spirit and dedication of the Israelites living outside the capital to restore the city.

(b) Fish gate (3:3-5)

3 Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and installed its doors with its bolts and bars.

3 Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

3 The Fish Gate was repaired by Hassenaah's sons. They built its framework and installed its doors, including locks and security bars,

3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

- The Fish Gate may have been the gate through which the people of Tyre brought fish they sold (13:16)

4 Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

4 Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

4 with Uriah's son Meremoth (who was also a grandson of Hakkoz) next to them, Berechiah's son Meshullam (who was also a grandson of Meshezabel) next to them, and next to him Baana's son Zadok.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel.

- "...Meremoth" - a priest's son (Cf. Ezra 8:33), also worked on a second section (v21), as did Meshullam (v30), whose daughter was married to Tobiah's son (6:18).

5 Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.

5 Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.

5 Next to them the Tekoites worked valiantly, even though their leading officials weren't fully dedicated to the work of their lord.

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

- The men of Tekoa (Tekoites), about 12 miles south of Jerusalem, repaired a section — Though the nobles of Tekoa did not help in the project, others from Tekoa took on another section, on the east wall (v27)

(c) Old gate (3:6-12)

6 Now Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Ancient Gate; they laid its beams and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars.

6 Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

6 Paseah's son Joiada and Besodeiah's son Meshullam repaired the Old Gate. They built its framework and installed its doors, including locks and security bars.

6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River.

7 Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the governor of the province beyond the River.

7 Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite were working with men from Gibeon and men from Mizpah under the Trans-Euphrates regional governor.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

- Gibeon and Mizpah were a few miles northwest of Jerusalem

— Somewhat surprisingly, those towns were under the governor of Trans-Euphrates (Cf. 2:9)

— The exact sites of those gates and of the Tower of the Ovens (v11) is not known, but the tower may have been near the ovens in the street of the bakers (Jer 37:21)

8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

8 Nearby, Harhaiah's son Uzziel the goldsmith was carrying on repairs, and next to him Hananiah, a perfume-maker, rebuilt Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

- A goldsmith and a perfume-maker took on a different line of work when they went into construction labor

9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

9 Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

10 Then next to them, Harumaph's son Jedaiah did repairs opposite his house, and next to him Hashabneiah's son Hattush carried on repairs.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of Furnaces.

11 Harim's son Malchijah and Pahath-moab's son Hasshub repaired another section, along with the Tower of the Ovens,

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

12 Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

12 and next to him Hallohesh's son Shallum, ruling official for the other half of the Jerusalem district, did repairs, as did his daughters.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

- Even rulers of Jerusalem's districts and half-districts (v9,12; Cf. v14-15) took up tools for the building project

(d) Valley gate (3:13)

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Dung Gate.

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Refuse Gate.

13 Hanun and the residents of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate, reconstructing it and installing its doors, including locks and security bars. They also rebuilt 1,000 cubits of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

- "...Valley Gate" - where Nehemiah's nighttime inspection tour began and ended (Cf. 2:13,15)

- "...Dung Gate" - so named because it led to the Hinnom Valley south of the city where refuse was dumped

(e) Refuse gate (3:14)

14 And Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars.

(f) Fountain gate (3:15-25)

15 Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the official of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, made a roof for it, and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah at the king's garden as far as the steps that descend from the city of David.

- "...Fountain Gate" - on the east wall, north of the Dung Gate

- "...Pool of Shelah" - or Pool of Siloam, was near the King's Garden, near which Zedekiah, Judah's last king, had gone in his attempt to escape from Jerusalem while the Babylonians were conquering the city (Cf. Jer 39:4)

16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as a point opposite the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the house of the mighty men.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Bethzur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

- "...tombs of David" - refer to the tombs of David and his descendants, the kings of Judah. David was buried in this area, "the city of David" (1 Kings 2:10).

- "...artificial pool" - may be the King's Pool (Neh 2:14) or perhaps the "lower pool" (Is 22:9)

- "...house of the mighty men" - may have been the barracks of David's select soldiers, or "mighty men" (Cf. 2 Sam 23:8)

19 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall.

- "...armory" - another point near the eastern wall
- "...Angle" - apparently a turn or dog-leg in the wall. Another "Angle" is mentioned in v24-25.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

- "...zealously" - Baruch is called out specifically as being particularly zealous for his specific job. No other worker, of the over 50 listed in this chapter, is described as doing their work "zealously."

21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the doorway of Eliashib's house even as far as the end of his house.

21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the doorway of Eliashib's house even as far as the end of his house.

21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

- Meremoth (v21) repaired two sections (Cf. v4), as did the Tekoites (v5,27)

- Priests (v22; Cf. v1) and Levites (v17) were involved in the repair work, closer to the temple than to other parts of the wall

26 (Now the Temple Servants were living on the Ophel as far as the Water Gate that faces eastward with its prominent tower.)

26 Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

- "...Ophel" - the area between the city of David and the temple mount. Understandably the temple servants lived near the temple area.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section in front of the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophel.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section in front of the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophel.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

- Private houses were some of the points of reference: the house of Eliashib the high priest (v20-21; Cf. v1), Benjamin and Hasshub's house (v23), and Azariah's house (v23-24).

— Other houses were mentioned later including the priests' houses (v28), Zadok's house (v29), Meshullam's house (v30), and "the house of the temple servants and the merchants" (v31).

- "...Malchijah" - the third man by this name in this chapter (see v11,14)

— His wall repairs extended south to the house of the temple servants, who are mentioned in v26 as living on the hill of Ophel. Merchants also lived in that area near the temple servants.

- "...Inspection Gate" - at the northeast corner of the wall (Cf. the corner in v24)
